FUND MANAGER'S REVIEW, OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

The Federal Reserve (Fed) unanimously voted to hold interest rates steady at 4.25%-4.5% range for a second straight meeting in March as the policymakers weigh the impact of President Donald Trump's aggressive economic agenda. The Fed has lowered its gross domestic product (GDP) growth forecast for 2025 to 1.7% from 2.1% and has raised its core inflation projections to 2.8% from 2.5%. Noteworthy that these revisions were done prior to the sweeping trade tariff announced in early April 2025. The United States (U.S.) non-farm payrolls jumped by a strong 228K in March, up from February's revised 117K. On inflation, the core Personal Consumption Expenditure (PCE) Index rose by 2.8% annually in February, up from 2.7% and above expectations of 2.7%.

U.S. Treasury yields declined month-on-month in March against the backdrop of heightened uncertainties brought by Trump's aggressive policies. The 2-year yield declined 10 basis points (bps) to 3.88%, the 5-year yield declined 7bps to 3.95% while the 10-year was held stable at 4.21%. Other developed markets' bond yields also ended lower in March. Local government bonds yield also closed firmer in March with the yield on the 10-year Malaysian Government Securities (MGS) lower by 2bps at 3.77%.

U.S. stocks slumped in March due to increasing worries of that Trump's trade policies will damage global growth. The S&P 500 declined -5.8% and the Dow Jones fell -4.2%. European stocks also fell on similar concerns. Regional stocks closed mixed although most were in the sea of red. India's SENSEX gained 5.8% and the Philippines and Indonesia bourses also closed better. Amongst the losers, Taiwan's TAIEX shed 10.2% and Nikkei 225 fell 4.14%. On the local stocks, the FTSE Bursa Malaysia KLCI (FBM KLCI) declined by 3.88% to close at 1,513.65. Other Bursa Malaysia index series posted between 2-4% negative monthly performance except for FBM ACE that managed to post around 1% gain. Foreign investors offloaded a record RM4.6bn worth of stocks in March 2025, exceeding the 2024 full-year outflow of RM4.2bn.

In the months ahead, for fixed income, the fund manager remains constructive on local sukuk market as Trump's policies threaten global growth. For equities, fund manager's focus is shifting towards the more resilient, domestic-centric sectors as well as sectors that are less sensitive to economic cycle.
