FUND MANAGER'S REVIEW, OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

In a widely anticipated move, the U.S. Federal Reserve (Fed) cut the Fed Funds Rate (FFR) by 25 basis points (bps) to a target range of 4.25%-4.5%. Nonetheless, in terms of the forward guidance, the Fed indicated that it probably would only reduce the rate by additional 50bps in 2025 as compared to 100bps indicated in their September's dot plot. The change in outlook came as inflation remains above the 2% target while labor market and economic outlooks remain positive. The Fed lowered its expected unemployment rate for 2024 to 4.2%, while headline and core inflation gauge were pushed higher to respective estimates of 2.4% and 2.8%, slightly higher than the September estimate.

On local front, Malaysia's inflation increased 1.8% in November year-on-year, slower than expected and lower than the 1.9% increase in October. November's disinflation was driven by a slower increase in the main groups of health and transport while inflation for food & beverages increased at a higher rate of 2.6% as compared to 2.3% in October.

Global bond yields broadly moved higher in December after the Fed's decision. The 10-year U.S. Treasury yields rose 40bps on the month to close at 4.57%. Local bonds fared much better in December as government bond yields only rose up to 3bps. The 10-year Malaysian Government Securities (MGS) yield closed that year at 3.81%, 8bps higher as compared to 2023's closing level.

Global equity markets showcased varied performance in 2024. The S&P 500 and Nasdaq Index delivered impressive annual returns of 23.31% and 28.64%, respectively. However, the S&P 500 slipped 2.50% in December, while the Nasdaq posted a modest 0.48% gain for the month, driven by optimism surrounding rate cuts, economic resilience, and artificial intelligence advancements. In contrast, the MSCI Europe Index dipped 0.53% month-on-month (MoM) in December, pressured by monetary policy uncertainties and high valuations. Meanwhile, the DJIA fell 5.27% in December, ending the year with a respectable 12.88% annual gain.

The Asia-Pacific region delivered mixed results. Japan's Nikkei 225 and Taiwan's TAIEX led December performance with gains of 4.41% and 3.47%, respectively. Conversely, South Korea's KOSPI and India's Nifty 50 were the month's worst performers, declining 2.30% and 2.02%, respectively. Taiwan's TAIEX surged 28.47% year-to-date (YTD) in 2024, supported by robust industrial production and growing technology demand. In contrast, South Korea's KOSPI dropped 9.63% YTD, hampered by political turmoil following President Yoon Suk Yeol's failed attempt at martial law and subsequent suspension.

The Malaysian equity market experienced a robust 2024, especially during the first half of the year. The FTSE Bursa Malaysia Index Series recorded broad-based growth, with several indices surpassing 15%. While foreign investors were significant contributors to the market in the first three quarters, net selling emerged in the last quarter. December marked a strong close for Malaysian equities, with the FBMKLCI rising 3.01% and the FBM EMAS Shariah gaining 4.62%.

Malaysia's equity market outlook remains optimistic, underpinned by Gross Domestic Product (GDP) growth, abundant local liquidity, and sector-specific drivers such as data center expansion and public infrastructure projects. Tourism-related industries are well-positioned for growth, bolstered by a weaker ringgit and supportive policies. Additionally, state-driven initiatives and strategic investments in Johor, Sarawak, and Penang are expected to sustain momentum, enhancing Malaysia's competitiveness and investment appeal in 2025.
