FUND MANAGER'S REVIEW

Global bonds yields soared amidst stronger than expected US inflation reading and as investors de-risked ahead of US Presidential Election. US economy grew 2.7% annualized rate in the third quarter of 2024, below the 3.0% print in the second quarter of 2024. Growth was supported by resilient consumer spending and federal government outlays. On inflation front, the Personal Consumption Expenditure (PCE) Price index rose 2.1% year-on-year, slower than August's 2.3% rise. The core PCE however rose 2.7% matching the increase seen in August and exceeding the market forecast of 2.6%. Unemployment rate unexpectedly improved to 4.1%, in September from 4.2%. However, the non-farm payrolls data released at the end of the month reported a meagre addition of only 12,000 jobs, falling short of the anticipated 100,000 due to the impact of weather disruptions and worker strikes. The 10-year US Treasury yield was up 50 basis point (bps) on the month to close at 4.28%.

Ringgit government bond yields climbed between 10-20bps during the month, tracking the higher global yields. The 10-year Malaysian Government Securities (MGS) yield increased 22bps to 3.93%, while the 3-yr and 5-yr added 19bps and 15bps to close at 3.52% and 3.65%, respectively. The 30-year however only weakened by 5bps to 4.24%.

According to advanced estimates from statistic office, the Malaysian economy grew by 5.3% in the third quarter of 2024, from 5.9% in the second quarter of 2024, underpinned by strong performances in the services, manufacturing, and construction sector. Headline inflation moderated further to 1.8% in September, while core inflation also came in at 1.8%.

Amidst expectation of lower global interest rates, we remain positive on local sukuk. The recent sell-off has opened up bargain hunting opportunities.
