

BIMB i FLEXI FUND

FUND MANAGER'S REVIEW

The FBMS Index was down by 3.07% in September as investors took profit on Index-related stocks after a strong rebound in August. The Fund's performance on the other hand was up by 3.91% on 1-month basis and had outperformed its benchmark by 5.37% led by industrial and travel-related stocks that are now benefiting from economic re-opening measures announced by the new administration such as re-opening of Langkawi Island to local vaccinated tourists.

Moving forward, the Fund will maintain its current stock mix that will benefit from post Covid-19 vaccination re-opening whereby Malaysia is expected to reach 90% vaccination for adults earlier than expected by end October. The newly formed government had also announced that a full re-opening of all sectors in Malaysia will most likely be implemented by December 2021. The Fund's key focus in technology and travel-related counters will remain under this development as earnings outlook continues to improve moving forward.
