

BIMB i FLEXI FUND

FUND MANAGER'S REVIEW

The FBMS Index was down by 7.45% month-on-month as the sharp 75bps rate hike by the US Fed to 3.25% and sharp fall in US stock market had negatively affected the local stock market sentiment. The Fund's NAV had decreased by 3.20% on 1-month basis but outperformed its benchmark by 0.43% as the Fund's holdings in technology, consumer and industrial stocks performed better than the broader market.

While global economy continues to face headwinds such as Covid-19 lockdown situation in China as well as volatile financial market conditions in the US, UK and Europe, the Fund will continue to adopt a fully invested mode to ride on market rebound potentials in 4Q 2022 as the pace of rate hike by the US Fed is expected to be reduced in 2023 as recession issues will likely return to the Fed's focus once inflationary pressure eases. A positive GE-15 outcome in 4Q might also lead to more upside ahead for the Fund's NAV.
